

Independent Practitioner's Review Engagement Report

To the Members of Tzeachten First Nation:

We have reviewed the schedule of remuneration and expenses of elected officials of Tzeachten First Nation for the year ended March 31, 2018, as required in accordance with section 7.3 of the 2017 - 2018 Indigenous Services Canada Year-end Financial Reporting Handbook.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statement

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of this financial statement in accordance with section 7.3 of the 2017 - 2018 Indigenous Services Canada Year-end Financial Reporting Handbook, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statement that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Practitioner's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on the accompanying financial statement based on our review. We conducted our review in accordance with Canadian generally accepted standards for review engagements, which require us to comply with relevant ethical requirements.

A review of financial statements in accordance with Canadian generally accepted standards for review engagements is a limited assurance engagement. The practitioner performs procedures, primarily consisting of making inquiries of management and others within the entity, as appropriate, and applying analytical procedures, and evaluates the evidence obtained.

The procedures performed in a review are substantially less in extent than, and vary in nature from, those performed in an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion on this financial statement.

Conclusion

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that this financial statement is not, in all material respects, in accordance with Section 7.3 of the 2017 - 2018 Indigenous Services Canada Year-end Financial Reporting Handbook.
